

All-Party Parliamentary Group for Tamils (UK APPG)

The cross-party UK parliamentary group through which Tamil-British constituents and diaspora civil-society engage Westminster on Sri Lanka policy, accountability and human rights.

The APPG is not a TLTE partner. It is the constitutional point of contact between Tamil-British voters and their elected representatives. /case links to the APPG's published work; TLTE's MP Packs organ exists precisely to make that engagement evidence-led.

§1 Why it sits in /case

APPGs are how UK parliamentary attention is sustained between debates. The APPG for Tamils has carried the Sri Lanka file across multiple parliaments. TLTE's MP Packs — Mullivaikkal, Demilitarisation, Disappearances, Katchatheevu, Press Freedom, GSP+, Tamil Legal Memory, Reconciliation Audit, Civilian Safety After Militarisation — are written so any UK MP, APPG-affiliated or not, can table PQs and EDMs from cited material.

Sources

- All-Party Parliamentary Group for Tamils — UK Parliament register.
- USTPAC — companion US-Congressional briefings.

What this is not

- This article does not claim to speak for the APPG.
- This article does not name individual parliamentarians by party.