

Canadian Tamil Congress (CTC)

Federally-registered Canadian Tamil civic body engaging Parliament, provincial legislatures and Global Affairs Canada.

The Canadian Tamil Congress (CTC) is a federally-registered Canadian Tamil civic body engaging the Parliament of Canada, provincial legislatures, and Global Affairs Canada on Sri Lanka-accountability and Canadian Tamil community matters. It sits alongside the Canadian Tamil Chamber of Commerce and the Tamil Cultural and Academic Society of Canada as one of three principal federated Canadian Tamil institutions referenced by TLTE.

§1 What it does

The CTC engages on Parliament Hill, hosts annual commemorations, contributes to the Canadian Tamil Genocide Education Week Act (passed by the Ontario Legislative Assembly in May 2021), and submits to UN treaty-body reviews of Canada. It maintains a published positions register.

§2 How TLTE relates

CTC is a citation-and-route destination. TLTE does not duplicate CTC intake, does not channel funds, and does not co-brand. The Canadian record sits alongside the UK record on TLTE only as evidence of established diaspora civic infrastructure.
