Policy asks

- UK Government (DCMS): Confirm that educational record-keeping projects drawing only on Tier-A UN/OHCHR sources, carrying a published refusal of proscribed-org iconography, qualify as protected speech under ECHR Art. 10 and ICCPR Art. 19.
- UK Government (Home Office, policy): Recognise that referral-only educational publishers operating a published Five-Refusals doctrine do not require operational counter-terrorism scrutiny when their public posture meets the Civic Protection Doctrine guardrails.
- APPG for Tamils: Convene a roundtable on diaspora-led educational record-keeping under UNESCO MoW principles and the Right to Truth.

Draft parliamentary questions

- [DCMS] To ask the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport, what assessment has been made of the role of diaspora educational publishers in preserving Tier-A documentary heritage on the Sri Lankan accountability file.
- [Home Office] To ask the Secretary of State for the Home Department, what guidance is applied to UK educational publishers operating a published refusal of proscribed-organisation iconography while drawing only on Tier-A UN and OHCHR sources.
- [FCDO] To ask the Secretary of State for Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Affairs, what HM Government's position is on the protection afforded under ICCPR Art. 19 and ECHR Art. 10 to educational record-keeping on conflict-era events documented by the OHCHR Office of Investigations.

Civic remembrance

Veli Studies is an educational study set, not a game, not a service. The publisher is VinMin Ltd; the archive is TLTE. Every page carries the Five Refusals non-removably. The operational layer is sealed in Vault RB-13 under Founder + 4-of-7 trustee unwrap. UK Lobbying Act 2014 transparency note applies on every printed asset.

Pack rules

- Never carries proscribed-org iconography on any plate, asset, or share image.
- Never names a combatant of any proscribed organisation on a plate.
- Never frames Veli Studies as a game, service, marketplace, or wagering loop.
- Always cites the Tier-A source for every load-bearing claim.
- Always names VinMin Ltd as publisher and TLTE as archive — never the inverse.
- Lobbying Act 2014 transparency note on every printed asset.

Transparency

Published under the UK Transparency of Lobbying Act 2014 posture. TLTE C.I.C. is a community interest company, not a state, party or charity. Era: Aarambam (founding).
